Specifically, 2019 was the concluding year of the Ron McKinley Philanthropy Fellows program, which provided employment, coaching, and support for people of color to establish career experience, knowledge and relationships in philanthropy. Also, in this year preceding the United States census count, the Minnesota Council on Foundations provided support to partner organizations to build infrastructure for census outreach and educate the community, in particular those in typically historically undercounted communities, about the importance of participation in the census. In addition, MCF's executive in residence program provided education, encouragement, and support to foundations in Minnesota to participate in impact investing, a strategy to commit a foundation's resources to investment vehicles which are aligned with mission and program goals in order to increase community impact.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b:	The Council acts as a fiscal agent for another entity and reports those assets being held as a liability. The amount reported as a liability at December 31, 2019 is $11,205.
Part X, Line 2:	The Council is organized as a Minnesota nonprofit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3), qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi), and has been determined not to be a private foundation under Section 509(a)(1). The Council is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the Council is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to its exempt purpose. The Council files an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS to report its unrelated business taxable income. The Council believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Council would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.
Part XII, Line 2d - Other Adjustments:	Return of restricted funds not used reported in expenses on financial statements 239,904.

All other members, such as associate members do not have voting rights and privileges.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a	The members of the Council elect the directors by majority vote. Such disclosure shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting. A director who does not plan to attend a meeting at which he or she has reason to believe that the board will act on a matter in which the person knows he or she has a conflict of interest shall disclose to the Chair all facts material to the conflict of interest. The Chair shall report the disclosure at the meeting and the disclosure shall be reflected in the minutes of the meeting. If the Director having the conflict of interest is the Chair, then the required disclosure shall be made to, and the required report to the board shall be made by, the President. Responsible persons who are not Directors of the Council, or who have a conflict of interest with respect to a contract or transaction that is not the subject of board action, shall disclose to the President or Chair any conflict of interest that such responsible person knows he or she has with respect to such contract or transaction. Such disclosure shall be made as soon as the conflict of interest is known to the responsible person. The responsible person shall refrain from any action that may affect the Council's participation in such contract or transaction. If the matter does not require Board consideration, the President or Chair may address the matter. If it is not entirely clear whether or not a conflict of interest exists, then the individual with the potential conflict shall disclose the circumstances to the Chair or President, who shall determine whether there exists a conflict of interest that is subject to this policy. The Board shall review each conflict of interest that is reported to it, and may approve the affected contract or transaction if the material facts as to the contract or transaction and the conflict of interest are fully disclosed or known to the Board and the Board approves the contract or transaction in good faith by the affirmative vote (without counting the interested Director) of a majority of the Board at a meeting at which there is a quorum present, again without counting the interested Director.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Council strives to achieve fair, transparent and effective ways of recognizing, motivating and rewarding staff for contributions to achieving its mission. MCF uses a compensation system that determines the current market value of the position based on the skills, knowledge and behaviors required of a fully competent incumbent. The system used is objective and non-discriminatory in theory, application and practice. The Board of Directors is responsible for the review and approval of the position level, pay range, and the specific compensation package for the President. MCF conducts a salary review, periodically, that compares similar organizations including nonprofits, organizations of similar size and those in the Twin Cities metro area, or region, as appropriate for the level of position and as available. The process was conducted in 2019 to establish the hiring rate and total compensation for the organization's new President Susie Brown. The Minnesota Council on Foundations uses comparative data from other member associations and nonprofits to establish compensation for all staff. MCF uses data from the Minnesota Council of Nonprofits, the United Philanthropy Forum, and other sources. The compensation was evaluated for all positions in 2019, and established for several newly created positions.
